

Lee Enfield Rifle Association

RANGE SAFETY AWARENESS & COMPETENCY ASSESSMENT

The candidate is to be tested on the range in the following areas and the results recorded on the assessment sheet.

1. Range Safety Protocols
(a) Understanding the role of the RCO	Identification of an RCO Explanation of the role, responsibilities & authority
(b) Knowledge & understanding of range safety protocols	Explanation of range standing orders Range briefing prior to shooting Access to and leaving the firing point Butt flag procedures Procedure for moving forward on the range area Inspection of targets Access to and leaving the butts
(c) Understanding & observing the 70 mil and 200 mil rules.	Explanation of rules Observance of rules on the firing point.
2. Proving that the Firearm is Clear	On firing point inspection Use of breach flag
3. Loading, Firing & Unloading	Compliance with RCO's commands Use of safety catch
4. Misfire Procedure	Explain and demonstrate the procedure
5. Emergency Stop Procedure	Explain procedure on stop command Action on hooter sounding Action after incident is resolved
6. Zeroing Procedure	Equipment check Ammunition restrictions Bore sighting Adjustment